Social Justice and Creation Care Workshops

Care for Creation

Pat Watkins, missionary assigned to the Care of God's Creation will talk about The Biblical Theology of Creation Care, level 101.

Solar Oven Partners

Rick Jost, Director, discusses using the free energy of the sun to save money, cook food, and improve women and children's health in the Dominican Republic.

Faith and the Environment

Jessica wonders aloud "How can we be better stewards of Mother Earth so that people can enjoy healthy living for centuries to come?" Some practical ideas to implement in our daily lives.

Our Wesleyan Heritage and Justice

David Wildman immerses himself in social justice issues and Christian solutions to problems plaguing our world. He talks about the barriers humans erect to keep some out and keep some in and his investment of time and love in the Middle East.

Ashley Steele—Bridges Out of Poverty

Ashley Steele, Urban Missions Ministries. This is not a program, but a new way to think and talk about poverty. She asks "What would it actually look like to have a community where no one is left behind?"
